ORDER

Court reviewed numerous letter requests and responses (Dkt. Nos. 131, 132, 133, 135, 141, 143, 144, 146, 147, 149, 150, and 151) regarding discovery disputes amongst the parties, and also reviewed, in camera, excerpts from the employment files of four of the County defendants' witnesses submitted by a transmittal letter (Dkt. No. 136) pursuant to a prior directive of the Court (see Dkt. No. 128) at a previous discovery conference. The Court also held a lengthy in person discovery conference on the record with counsel on May 29, 2024. At the conference, the Court made the following rulings:

(1) Employment records - discipline and training (see Dkt. Nos. 128, 136): Pursuant to counsel's representations, no disciplinary records exist for the four subject County witnesses; therefore, the County defendants shall respond to that demand in writing by June 21, 2024, indicating that no such records exist. Per the Court's in camera review of the list of training courses undertaken by the four subject County witnesses, the County shall produce the four lists of training records redacted except for the following which must be disclosed: (a) Campbell – CUS-21/03, CUS-21/04, CUS-21/05, SHR-21/15, and SHR-21/03; (b) Cabrey – CUS-19/16, CUS-20/07, CUS-20/21, SHR-20/17, SHR-20/18, SHR-20/19, CUS-21/03, CUS-21/04, SHR-21/03, CUS-21/05, and SHR-21/15; (c) Leubner – Mental Health Training 12/27/2016, CUS-18/01, 0243, CUS-19/01, CUS/Transp, CUS-19/16, CUS-20/07, CUS-20/21, SHR-20/17, SHR-20/18, SHR-20/19, CUS-21/03, CUS-21/04, SHR-21/03, CUS-21/05, and SHR-21/15; Sanderson – 10/27/2017 Suicide Prevention (Refresher), 10/26/2017 ASHI C.P.R., 10/26/2017 ASHI First Aid, 1/20/2017 Suicide Prevention (Initial), 1/19/2017 ASHI C.P.R., 1/19/2017 ASHI First Aid, 1/19/2017 Automated External Defibrillation, 10/4/2018 Annual In Service Day 1 (“Adult/Infant/Child CPR/AED” and “First Aid” only), 10/6/2018 Annual In Service Day 2 (“Suicide Prevention” only), “Opioid Overdose and Intranasal Naloxone Training for Law Enforcement Course” 02/22/2018, CUS-18/01, COR-20/18, COR-SERT10, SHR-20/17, SHR-20/18, SHR-20/19, COR-21/04, COR-21/01, COR-21/02, and SHR-21/15. These documents shall be produced by June 21, 2024.

(2) Common Interest Privilege (Dkt. Nos. 131, 132, 133, 135): For the reasons stated on the record per the relevant transcript pages attached and which are incorporated by reference, the Court finds the common interest privilege applies, and the documents outlined on defendant Naphcare's amended privilege log (see Dkt. No. 131-1), which the Court finds sufficiently detailed, are protected by the common interest privilege. The underlying privileges protected by the common interest privilege include the attorney-client privilege and attorney work product privilege.

(3) Deposition Conduct (Dkt. Nos. 141, 143, 146): Any request for sanctions is denied without prejudice. However, the parties' attorneys are to conduct themselves professionally and civilly during all depositions and in any interactions related to the prosecution and defense of this case. To be clear, there should be no coaching of witnesses, no obstruction, and no repetitive questions. Objections may be stated with regard to form and privilege with a word or two of explanation to provide inquiring counsel with an opportunity to cure the question should counsel choose to do so. If any further unprofessional behavior in the judgment of the Court occurs during the remaining depositions, the Court will appoint a Special Master to participate in all further depositions, the cost of which will be borne by all parties, and other sanctions may also be imposed on the specific offending counsel.

(4) Interrogatory Responses (Dkt. Nos. 144, 147, 149, 150, 151): The parties have reached an agreement with regard the discovery requests concerning inmate suicides at the Justice Center for the time period of September 2016 through September 2021. In accordance with the representations of counsel for the County defendants, no such records exist because there were no suicides in that time period. The County defendants shall respond to those related demands in writing by June 21, 2024, indicating that no such records exist. Regarding requests seeking the names of medical and mental health providers and entities, and substance abuse providers and entities, for the time period of September 2016 through September 2021, those requests are denied without prejudice. The County has already produced numerous relevant policies and procedures in effect during September of 2021 in response to demands related to plaintiff's Monell claim. The Court finds no connection or relevance to the Monell claim has been shown at this time to the names of specific providers or entities who may have preceded defendants Naphcare and Proactive in the delivery of mental, physical, and substance abuse care to individuals incarcerated at the Justice Center. As noted, this directive is made without prejudice should any further information surface through discovery that would tend to show that such information is relevant to the Monell claim. To the extent the parties seek information about other facilities where Naphcare and Proactive may have provided medical services during the relevant time period, that request is likewise denied as not relevant to any claims or defenses and not reasonably calculated to lead to relevant information. It is also overly burdensome.

(5) Miscellaneous Discovery Issues and Remaining Discovery Deadlines (raised sua sponte by the parties and the Court): After discussion with all counsel regarding discovery remaining, the parties agreed that witnesses Alvarez and Gonzalez would be produced for depositions by their respective counsel. Court then extended the remaining pretrial deadlines and made further directives as set forth in detail in the relevant ordering paragraph below. Since the Court extended the deadlines significantly, the Court will not be inclined to extend them any further. The parties are to meet and confer to draft a complete schedule for the remaining fact witnesses' depositions as discussed at the conference.

ACCORDINGLY, it is

ORDERED that the various discovery disputes at outlined in Dkt. Nos. 131, 132, 133, 135, 136, 141, 143, 144, 146, 147, 149, 150, and 151 are GRANTED, in part, and DENIED, in part, as set forth above; and it is further

ORDERED that the documents and information to be exchanged as set forth above shall be served by 6/21/2024; Naphcare shall submit a joint status report to the Court regarding the complete schedule for the remaining fact witnesses' depositions by 6/28/2024, including witnesses Alvarez and Gonzalez and any FRCP 30(b)(6) witnesses, and the schedule shall specifically identify each witness and the date on which each witness will be deposed. The status report shall also set forth the specific date for the mediation as confirmed with the mediator; and it is further

ORDERED that the deadlines are reset as follows: all fact discovery due 10/15/2024; fact discovery motions due 10/29/2024; plaintiff's expert disclosure due 11/12/2024; defendants' expert disclosure due 12/16/2024; any rebuttal expert disclosure due 1/6/2025; all expert discovery, including expert depositions, due 2/10/2025 after which discovery will be closed; expert discovery motions due 2/24/2025; dispositive motions due 3/7/2025; mediation due 9/30/2024.

1 committed medical malpractice with the treatment of the same
2 plaintiff here. This is no different, your Honor, than a
3 physician in a hospital who is treating a patient, and we'll 4 just say, for example, your Honor, the doctor and Crouse
5 Hospital are sued together. They have a common interest and 6 have an ability to put together a common defense. Just 7 because I don't follow the same strategy on certain issues
8 that NaphCare has doesn't mean there is not a common interest
9 or a unity of interest going forward.

10 Mr. DeBernardis wanted to point out that our 11 witnesses may have testified slightly different on certain 12 issues. That highlights the fact that both the plaintiff and 13 the County have had multiple opportunities to explore the 14 relationship between Proactive and NaphCare. They've 15 answered the questions. I can say we shouldn't be penalized
16 because my clients have taken the opportunity to testify
17 truthfully at their deposition. That doesn't change the fact
18 that I may have a common defense, and I don't think I'm 19 required at this juncture to come forward and tell the 20 plaintiff and the County what my common defense strategies 21 are.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else from anybody on 23 this issue?

24 MR. DeBERNARDIS: No, judge.

25 THE COURT: I'm going to issue my directive, and

1 all of this will be attached to the transcript from today,
2 but I find that the common interest privilege does apply and 3 that the documents on the amended privilege log served by 4 NaphCare are protected by the common interest privilege. And 5 the reason for that is because I find that NaphCare and 6 Proactive share a common legal interest and the documents
7 described were designed to further that interest because the 8 management services agreement provides for joint legal 9 counsel when facing potential litigation.

10           There are identical claims and allegations asserted
11 against both of those defendants in the operative pleading.
12 Proactive and NaphCare both use NaphCare's in-house counsel
13 which was contemplated by their management services
14 agreement. The documents by their description set forth in 15 the amended privilege log further that common legal interest
16 assisting with legal review analysis and advice concerning 17 inmate medical events involving both of those defendants,
18 Proactive and NaphCare, including the analysis of claims and 19 care regarding the plaintiff decedent's death.

20           And the documents involved legal strategy, and it's 21 clear to me from the descriptions on the privilege log that 22 the individuals who are participating in these documents or 23 these emails, they understood that the information exchanged
24 would be confidential based on attorney-client privilege.

25           Also as I've said in the arguments, NaphCare was

1 subcontractor for Proactive with Proactive providing on-site
2 medical care and staff and NaphCare providing administration
3 and management services for Proactive, which apparently 4 included off-site individuals responding to medical issues,
5 these off-site individuals being licensed in New York. And I
6 think NaphCare and Proactive intended to share these 7 documents and discussion in furtherance of that common 8 defense.

9           So that's my holding and the reasonings for it.
10 But I also find that NaphCare's amended privilege log
11 provides sufficient detail. I know there was an argument
12 from the plaintiff that it wasn't detailed enough, but I do
13 find, and I looked over it very carefully, but I find that 14 NaphCare's amended privilege log provides sufficient detail
15 regarding the documents and the information that's being 16 withheld.

17           So that is my ruling. The underlying privilege is 18 the attorney-client privilege and the work-product privilege,
19 and that is what the common interest privilege is protecting.
20 So that's my ruling on that issue.

21           Next issue, which is deposition conduct. And these 22 arguments or complaints are written up in dockets 141, 143
23 and 146.

24           Mr. DeBernardis, I am, frankly, astounded that 25 Mr. Hulslander isn't here. He should be here. It's his
